

David Scheer
President
Inland Truck Parts Company

David Scheer has been president of Inland Truck Parts Company since 1995. He started with Inland 1973 and has held many positions including delivery driver, warehouse person, inside salesman, outside salesman, store manager, regional manager, marketing manager and vice president. Inland has 25 locations covering 9 states with 525 employees. The company has 140 rebuild mechanics doing component remanufacturing and 85 drive in service technicians.

Scheer has a bachelor's degree from Wayne State College and is an avid golfer. He and his wife Nancy have a daughter and three sons.